

Mr. Jeffrey Gordon is a caring father of an adult, married daughter, and is recently re-married himself. He is proficient in American sign-language, and donates time as a Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) for hearing-impaired children. He recently expanded the use of this skill in charity work, to work with Juveniles in poverty-stricken neighborhoods. He has 30 years professional IT industry experience leading systems development projects and world-class software development. Jeff operates his consulting business Gorodetsky Inc. and has served an impressive set of Clientele: Cisco Systems, IBM, and PwC. Jeff is results-oriented, highly organized, innovative, communicates effectively and builds trusting partnerships. He is diversely educated in computer science, accounting, and business management (MBA).