

Mike is a compassionate parent and loving husband. He successfully raised twins to adulthood & college, and is a loving, committed husband of twenty-five years with his wife, who happens to have a “chronic significant physical disability (internal disorder)” by aH4L! standards. He has performed diligently as caregiver for over fifteen (15) years. Mike is also presently employed with ACIST Medical Systems, Inc. as their Site Quality Principal, in the San Francisco Bay Area. Prior to this, Mike served eight years as Principal Quality & Reliability Assurance Manager at Hospira/ Abbott Laboratories, also in the Bay Area. Mike also served over ten years as Principal Reliability Engineer at a major Defense Contractor in the Bay Area. Mike earned his Bachelors in Business Administration in Economics & Marketing, has numerous professional certifications, and has trained people in Quality Management and Risk Management for AAMI.